I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now, I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard him call; I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found that place at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; oh yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seems all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgements

We, the family, wish to extend our sincere appreciation to those who have shown so much kindness and love during this difficult time. May God Bless You.

The Obituary

Charlie Johnson was born on October 23, 1956, to the late Sam and Louise Jordan, in Blythe, Georgia. He entered into rest on September 13, 2019.

Charlie enjoyed entertaining friends and family with his cooking skills. He loved action, particularly watching westerns on television and riding motorcycles.

Charlie will forever be remembered for his pleasant demeanor and his love of people: he never met a stranger.

He was preceded in death by: his brother, Sammie Lee Jordan; and sisters, Laura Jones-Bradly, Juanita Wright, Lula Hamilton and Lauree Jackson.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Craig Roberson; sister, Geneva Streetman; special friend, Pamela Kendrick and a host of other relatives and friends.
